The Office has embarked on a phased rebranding exercise of all its offices.

Through what is known as Management-By-Walking, Dr. Sichembe toured Lusaka Provincial Audit Offices and interacted with staff.

This is because he understands that a key part of being a good manager is being in touch with your subordinates.

He expressed pleasure at the quality of works that have gone into the renovations so far.

He said his desire was to see all his offices across the country looking clean, well furnished, and adorned in modern signage.

Dr. Sichembe emphasised the value that comes with having a conducive work environment.

He however expressed concern over the slow pace with which the branding of the offices was being done.

He was nonetheless hopeful that once the works were completed, they would change the face of Lusaka Provincial Audit Office.
